New Jobs Plentiful at HIREvent

(Sacramento) – Jobseekers will find hundreds of tempting opportunities as they meet face to face with an assortment of employers recruiting at Sacramento's HIREvent on Tuesday, February 9th, from noon to 4pm at the Holiday Inn Northeast at I-80 & Madison. Admission is free!

Company representatives are hiring in a wide variety of fields including administration, customer service, finance, insurance, law enforcement, management, marketing, sales and more. Additionally, a special medical section will feature major healthcare employers hiring for positions in nursing, radiology, pharmaceuticals and other medical fields.

Attendees may also have their resumes evaluated for free by a career expert. Don't miss this timely, cost-effective way to meet with many employers in a single afternoon, all of whom are seeking to fill immediate openings. Dress for success, bring plenty of resumes, and arrive early enough to meet with every recruiter, because these employers are eager to hire.

The event is sponsored by KCRA 3, KQCA My58 and California Job Journal. For more information on this and other HIREvents, visit JobJournal.com or call 1-888-THE JOBS.
