FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Start 2010 with a New Job

(Stockton) – If your New Year’s resolutions include finding a job, Stockton’s 18th Annual HIREvent is the perfect opportunity for Central Valley jobseekers to make it happen. This free job fair will be held on Tuesday, January 26th from noon to 5pm at the Lexington Waterfront Hotel, 110 W. Fremont Street.

Central Valley jobseekers can spend the afternoon exploring possibilities with some of the area’s top employers, all in one location! Don’t miss your chance to shake hands with representatives from private and public sector organizations hiring for entry-level through management openings in a wide variety of fields including accounting, sales, education, marketing, administration, customer service, finance, security, mechanical, hospitality, maintenance, and more!

Does your resume need a little polishing? Get free, one-on-one recommendations from an employment expert. Jobseekers who want to stand out should dress professionally, bring plenty of resumes, and be sure to speak with every company at the event, because great opportunities are sometimes found where you least expect them.

Stockton’s 18th Annual HIREvent is co-sponsored by the City of Stockton, Citadel Broadcasting, and California Job Journal. For more information, visit JobJournal.com or call 888-THE-JOBS.
